Career History

2000 to present Foster Career

Role:

- Having been involved in this rewarding and enjoyable role for 12 years I have so far cared for 20 with age ranges of 2 to 16 children who have found themselves in need a care for a varying number of reasons, including (but not limited to);
  - Family Breakdown through divorce ETC
  - Parents with Drug and Alcohol problems
  - Learning Difficulties or Disabilities
- Fostering is about building a child's self-confidence back emotionally, physically and mentally
- With each placement I have had to deal with children who have low self-esteem and insecurity about their future prospects and life direction
- Assisting children through patience and time to learn how to stand on their own two feet, set learning and life goals and methods in which to achieve those goals either through education or self-discovery to work through and develop coping strategies to help deal with emotional problems
- I have never had a placement break down, which means that I have managed to make a change for every child to move forward in life
- Some have gone to do well and study at University level
- Multi agency liaison including, Police, Health Services, Social Services and the Education Service in relation to the children I foster
